

XM has done a great job with what they do best, to provide the best quality possible. Let them do weather, traffic and local. They will do it better and make others try harder at their jobs to stay competitive. Competition is what made America what it is today. I would like local programming on XM, maybe it would offer an alternative. I do not enjoy explaining commercials about male enhancement drugs to my 9 year old.